There are risks associated with investing in funds that invest in securities of foreign countries, such as erratic market conditions, economic and political instability and fluctuations in currency exchange rates. Investment in gold and gold related investments present certain risks, and returns on gold related investments have traditionally been more volatile than investments in broader equity or debt markets.

The Morningstar World Allocation Funds seek to provide both capital appreciation and income by investing in three major areas: stocks, bonds, and cash. While these funds do explore the whole world, most of them focus on the U.S., Canada, Japan, and the larger markets in Europe. It is rare for such funds to invest more than 10% of their assets in emerging markets. Standard & Poor's 500 Index is a widely recognized unmanaged index including a representative sample of 500 leading companies in leading sectors of the U.S. economy and is not available for purchase. Although the Standard & Poor's 500 Index focuses on the large-cap segment of the market, with approximately 75% coverage of U.S. equities, it is also considered a proxy for the total market. The FTSE All-World Index Series is the Large/Mid Cap aggregate of 2,700 stocks from the FTSE Global Equity Index Series. It covers 90-95% of the investable market capitalization. Covering 49 different countries, the index is divided into Developed, Advanced Emerging and Emerging segments. The FTSE World Index, which contains only the Developed and Advanced Emerging market segments, is a sub-set of the FTSE All-World Index. The FTSE classifies Taiwan, South Korea, Mexico, Brazil, South Africa and Israel as the most advanced emerging markets. Citigroup World Government Bond Index (all maturities $) is an index that is denominated in US$ and includes a wide range of world government bonds across all maturities. The MSCI World Index is a widely followed, unmanaged group of stocks from 23 international markets and is not available for purchase. The index provides total returns in U.S. dollars with net dividends reinvested.
