

CHRIS W.C. KWAN, CFA JOINS FIRST EAGLE INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT, LLC AS ASSOCIATE PORTFOLIO MANAGER OF THE FIRST EAGLE GOLD FUND

New York (June 13, 2011) – First Eagle Investment Management, LLC (“First Eagle”), adviser to the First Eagle Funds, announced the addition of Chris W.C. Kwan, CFA as Associate Portfolio Manager of the First Eagle Gold Fund.

Kwan joins First Eagle with over 15 years of investment experience in the metals and mining industry and will report to Rachel Benepe, Portfolio Manager of the First Eagle Gold Fund.

The addition of Kwan reflects First Eagle’s commitment to cultivating talent and structuring our investment capabilities to best service our clients’ evolving needs.

Mr. Kwan is a graduate of McGill University in Montreal, Quebec, and received his Masters of Arts in Economics from the University of Toronto. He holds the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation. He began his career in 1992 as an Account Manager in the Commercial Banking group of HSBC, Toronto. In 1996, he joined TD Securities, Inc. as an equity analyst covering the metals and mining industry. In 2004, he joined RBC Capital Markets as a Specialist Mining Salesperson, where he was the principal liaison between senior corporate management teams and a broad range of U.S. institutional investors specifically focused on metals and mining investments. Most recently, he was a Managing Director and led U.S. Global Mining Sales for BMO Capital Markets in New York. Mr. Kwan speaks both French and Cantonese.

The First Eagle family of funds, with $49.7 billion in assets as of March 31, 2011, includes First Eagle Global, Overseas, U.S. Value and Gold Funds and First Eagle Fund of America. They provide a range of value-oriented investment options. While each fund has its own distinct investment mandate, all share a focus on discovering well-managed, undervalued or overlooked companies, as well as special situations.
